

Women in Digital Employee Handbook

TO WOMEN IN DIGITAL EMPLOYEE:

This is our Employee Handbook. Please review it and sign the attached acknowledgment and drop the acknowledgment in the Personnel.

You may keep a copy of the Handbook if you wish, but a copy will always be available to you through the HR department. If you do not wish to keep a copy, please return the Handbook to HR.

This Employee Handbook (the “Handbook”) was developed to describe some of the expectations of our employees and to outline the policies, programs, and benefits available to eligible employees. Employees should familiarize themselves with the contents of the Handbook as soon as possible, for it will answer many questions about employment with Women in Digital.

INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT:

This Handbook is designed to acquaint you with Women in Digital and provide you with information about working conditions, employee benefits, and some of the policies affecting your employment. This Handbook is not a contract and is not intended to create any contractual or legal obligations. You should read, understand, and comply with all provisions of the Handbook. It describes many of your responsibilities as an employee and outlines the programs developed by Women in Digital to benefit employees. One of our objectives is to provide a work environment that is conducive to both personal and professional growth.

No Handbook can anticipate every circumstance or question about policy. As Women in Digital continues to grow, the need may arise and women in Digital reserves the right to revise, supplement, or rescind any policies or portion of the Handbook from time to time as it deems appropriate, in its sole and absolute discretion. The only exception is our employment-at-will policy permitting you or Women in digital to end our relationship for any reason at any time. The employment-at-will policy cannot be changed except in a written agreement signed by both you and the Chairman of the Company. Employees will, of course, be notified of such changes to the Handbook as they occur.

Customers are among our organization's most valuable assets. Every employee represents Women in Digital to our customers and the public. The way we do our jobs presents an image of our entire organization. Customers judge all of us by how they are treated with each employee contact. Therefore, one of our first business priorities is to assist any customer or potential customer. Nothing is more important than being courteous, friendly, helpful, and prompt in the attention you give to customers.

Women in digital will provide customer relations and services training to all employees with extensive customer contact. Our personal contact with the public, our manners on the telephone, and the communications we send to customers are a reflection not only of ourselves, but also of the professionalism of Women in Digital. Positive customer relations not only enhance the public's perception or image of Women in Digital, but also pay off in greater customer loyalty and increased sales and profit.

1-01 Nature of Employment:

Employment with ¹Women in Digital is voluntarily entered into and is “at-will,” which means that the employee is free to resign at will at any time, with minimum one month notice period. Similarly, Women in Digital may terminate the employment relationship at any time, with or without notice or cause. No one has the authority to make verbal statements that change the at-will nature of employment, and the at-will relationship cannot be changed or modified for any employee except in a written agreement signed by that employee and the Chairman of the Company.

Policies set forth in this Handbook are not intended to create a contract, nor are they to be construed to constitute contractual obligations of any kind or a contract of employment between the Company and any of its employees. The provisions of the Handbook have been developed at the discretion of management and, except for its policy of employment-at-will, may be amended or cancelled at any time, at Women in Digital's sole discretion.

These provisions supersede all existing policies and practices and may not be amended or added to without the express written approval of the CEO or person designated by the CEO of the Company.

1-02 Employee Relations:

Women in Digital believes that the work conditions, wages, and benefits it offers to its employees are competitive with those offered by other employers in this area and in this industry. If employees have concerns about work conditions or compensation, they are strongly encouraged to voice these concerns openly and directly to their supervisors.

Our experience has shown that when employees deal openly and directly with supervisors, the work environment can be excellent, communications can be clear, and attitudes can be positive. We believe that Women in digital amply demonstrates its commitment to employees by responding effectively to employee concerns.

1-03 Equal Employment Opportunity:

In order to provide equal employment and advancement opportunities to all individuals, employment decisions at Women in Digital will be based on merit, qualifications, and the needs of the company. The Company does not unlawfully discriminate in employment opportunities or practices on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, ancestry, medical conditions, family care status, sexual orientation, or any other basis prohibited by law.

The Company will make reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals with known disabilities unless doing so would result in an undue hardship to the extent required by law. This policy governs all aspects of employment, including selection, job assignment, compensation, discipline, termination, and access to benefits and training.

Any employees with questions or concerns about any type of discrimination in the workplace are encouraged to bring these issues to the attention of their immediate supervisor or the Human Resources Department. Employees can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal. Anyone found to be engaging in any type of unlawful discrimination will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

1-04 Business Ethics and Conduct:

The successful business operation and reputation of the Company are built upon the principles of fair dealing and ethical conduct of our employees. Our reputation for integrity and excellence requires careful observance of the spirit and the letter of all applicable laws and regulations, as well as a scrupulous regard for the highest standards of conduct and personal integrity.

The continued success of the Company is dependent upon our customers' trust and we are dedicated to preserving that trust. Employees owe a duty to the Company, its customers, and its shareholders to act in a way that will merit the continued trust and confidence of the public.

Women in digital will comply with all applicable laws and regulations and expects its directors, officers, and employees to conduct business in accordance with the letter, spirit, and intent of all relevant laws and to refrain from any illegal, dishonest, or unethical conduct.

In general, the use of good judgment, based on high ethical principles, will guide you with respect to lines of acceptable conduct. If a situation arises where it is difficult to determine the proper course of action, the matter should be discussed openly with your immediate supervisor and, if necessary, with the Human Resources Department for advice and consultation.

Compliance with this policy of business ethics and conduct is the responsibility of every Women in Digital employee. Disregarding or failing to comply with this standard of business ethics and conduct could lead to disciplinary action, up to and including possible termination of employment.

1-05 Personal Relationships in the Workplace:

The employment of relatives or individuals involved in a dating relationship in the same area of an organization may cause serious conflicts and problems with favoritism and employee morale. In addition to claims of partiality in treatment at work, personal conflicts from outside the work environment can be carried over into day-to-day working relationships.

For purposes of this policy, relatives are any persons who are related to each other by blood or marriage or whose relationship is similar to that of persons who are related by blood or marriage. A dating relationship is defined as a relationship that may be reasonably expected to lead to the formation of a consensual "romantic" or sexual relationship. This policy applies to all employees without regard to the gender or sexual orientation of the individuals involved.

Relatives of current employees may not occupy a position that will be working directly for or supervising their relative except as required by law. Individuals involved in a dating relationship with a current employee may also not occupy a position that will be working directly for or supervising the employee with whom they are involved in a dating relationship. Women in Digital also reserves the right to take prompt action if an actual or potential conflict of interest arises involving relatives or individuals involved in a dating relationship who occupy positions at any level (higher or lower) in the same line of authority that may affect the review of employment decisions.

If a relative relationship or dating relationship is established after employment between employees who are in a reporting situation described above, it is the responsibility and obligation of the supervisor involved in the relationship to disclose the existence of the relationship to management.

In other cases where a conflict or the potential for conflict arises because of the relationship between employees, even if there is no line of authority or reporting involved, the employees may be separated by reassignment or terminated from employment. Employees in a close personal relationship should refrain from public workplace displays of affection or excessive personal conversation.

1-07 Immigration Law Compliance:

Women in Digital is committed to employing only Bangladeshi citizens and foreigners who are authorized to work in Bangladesh and does not unlawfully discriminate on the basis of citizenship or national origin.

Employees with questions or seeking more information on immigration law issues are encouraged to contact the Human Resources Department. Employees may raise questions or complaints about immigration law compliance without fear of reprisal.

1-08 Conflicts of Interest:

Employees have an obligation to conduct business within guidelines that prohibit actual or potential conflicts of interest. This policy establishes only the framework within which Women in Digital wishes the business to operate. The purpose of these guidelines is to provide general direction so that employees can seek further clarification on issues related to the subject of acceptable standards of operation. Contact the Human Resources Department for more information or questions about conflicts of interest.

An actual or potential conflict of interest occurs when an employee is in a position to influence a decision that may result in a personal gain for that employee or for a relative as a result of Women in Digital's business dealings. For the purposes of this policy, a relative is any person who is related by blood or marriage or whose relationship with the employee is similar to that of persons who are related by blood or marriage.

No "presumption of guilt" is created by the mere existence of a relationship with outside firms. However, if employees have any influence on transactions involving purchases, contracts, or leases, it is imperative that they disclose to an officer of Women in Digital as soon as possible the existence of any actual or potential conflict of interest so that safeguards can be established to protect all parties.

Personal gain may result not only in cases where an employee or relative has a significant ownership in a firm with which Women in Digital does business, but also when an employee or relative receives any kickback, bribe, substantial gift, or special consideration as a result of any transaction or business dealings involving the Company.

1-12 Non-Disclosure:

The protection of confidential business information and trade secrets is vital to the interests and the success of Women in Digital. Confidential information includes, but is not limited to, the following examples:

- ✓ Acquisitions
- ✓ Remuneration & Compensation data
- ✓ Computer processes
- ✓ Computer programs and codes
- ✓ Scripts
- ✓ Customer lists
- ✓ Customer preferences
- ✓ Financial information
- ✓ Investments

- ✓ Labor relations strategies
- ✓ Marketing strategies
- ✓ New materials research
- ✓ Partnerships
- ✓ Pending projects and proposals
- ✓ Proprietary production processes
- ✓ Research and development strategies
- ✓ Scientific data
- ✓ Scientific formulae
- ✓ Scientific prototypes
- ✓ Technological data
- ✓ Technological prototypes

All employees may be required to sign a non-disclosure agreement as a condition of employment. Employees who improperly use or disclose trade secrets or confidential business information will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment and legal action, even if they do not actually benefit from the disclosed information.

2-01 Employment Categories:

It is the intent of Women in Digital to clarify the definitions of employment classifications so that employees understand their employment status and benefit eligibility. These classifications do not guarantee employment for any specified period of time. Accordingly, the right to terminate the employment relationship at will at any time is retained by both the employee and the Company.

In addition to the above categories, each employee will belong to one other employment category:

REGULAR FULL-TIME employees are those who are not in a temporary or introductory status and who are regularly scheduled to work Women in Digital's full-time schedule. Generally, they are eligible for Company's benefit package, subject to the terms, conditions, and limitations of each benefit program.

INTRODUCTORY employees are those whose performance is being evaluated to determine whether further employment in a specific position or with Women in Digital is appropriate. Employees who satisfactorily complete the introductory period will be notified of their new employment classification.

TEMPORARY employees are those who are hired as interim replacements, to temporarily supplement the work force, or to assist in the completion of a specific project. Employment assignments in this category are of a limited duration. Employment beyond any initially stated period does not in any way imply a change in employment status. Temporary employees retain that status unless and until notified of a change. While temporary employees receive all legally mandated benefits, they are ineligible for all of Company's other benefit programs.

2-02 Access to Personnel Files:

Women in Digital maintain a personnel file on each employee. The personnel file includes such information as the employee's job application, resume, records of training, documentation of performance appraisals and salary increases, and other employment records.

Personnel files are the property of the Company and access to the information they contain is restricted. Generally, only supervisors and management personnel of Women in Digital who have a legitimate reason to review information in a file are allowed to do so.

Employees who wish to review their own file should contact the Human Resources Department. With reasonable advance notice, employees may review their own personnel files in the Company's offices and in the presence of an individual appointed by the Company to maintain the files.

2-03 Personal Data Changes:

It is the responsibility of each employee to promptly notify Company of any changes in personal data. Personal mailing addresses, telephone numbers, number and names of dependents, individuals to be contacted in the event of emergency, educational accomplishments, and other such status reports should be accurate and current at all times. If any personal data has changed, notify the Human Resources Department.

2-04 Introductory / Probation Period:

The introductory period is intended to give new employees the opportunity to demonstrate their ability to achieve a satisfactory level of performance and to determine whether the new position meets their expectations. Women in Digital uses this period to evaluate employee capabilities, work habits, and overall performance. Either the employee or the Company may end the employment relationship at will at any time during or after the introductory period, with or without cause or advance notice. If anyone wishes to leave the company before completing the probation period, no salary will be disbursed for exit month.

All new and rehired employees work on an introductory basis for the first 90 calendar days after their date of hire. Any significant absence will automatically extend an introductory period by the length of the absence. If Women in Digital determine that the designated introductory period does not allow sufficient time to thoroughly evaluate the employee's performance, the introductory period may be extended for a specified period.

2-05 Employment Applications:

Women in Digital relies upon the accuracy of information contained in the employment application, as well as the accuracy of other data presented throughout the hiring process and employment. Any misrepresentations, falsifications, or material omissions in any of this information or data may result in the exclusion of the individual from further consideration for employment or, if the person has been hired, termination of employment.

2-06 Performance Evaluation:

Supervisors and employees are strongly encouraged to discuss job performance and goals on an informal, day-to-day basis. A formal written performance evaluation will be conducted following an employee's introductory period. Additional formal performance evaluations are conducted to provide both supervisors and employees the opportunity to discuss job tasks, identify and correct weaknesses, encourage and recognize strengths, and discuss positive, purposeful approaches for meeting goals.

2-07 Job Descriptions:

Women in Digital maintains job descriptions to aid in orienting new employees to their jobs, identifying the requirements of each position, establishing hiring criteria, setting standards for employee performance evaluations, and establishing a basis for making reasonable accommodations for individuals with disabilities.

The Human Resources Department and the hiring manager prepare job descriptions when new positions are created. Existing job descriptions are also reviewed and revised in order to ensure that they are up to date. Job descriptions may also be rewritten periodically to reflect any changes in position duties and responsibilities. All employees will be expected to help ensure that their job descriptions are accurate and current, reflecting the work being done.

Employees should remember that job descriptions do not necessarily cover every task or duty that might be assigned, and that additional responsibilities may be assigned as necessary. Every work during the stay in Women in Digital Limited is belongs to the company and should not be asked as personal property. Contact the Human Resources Department if you have any questions or concerns about your job description.

3-01 Employee Benefits:

Eligible employees at Women in Digital are provided a wide range of benefits. A number of the programs cover all employees in the manner prescribed by limited company law. Benefits eligibility is dependent upon a variety of factors, including employee classification. Your supervisor can identify the programs for which you are eligible.

3-02 Holidays:

Women in Digital will grant holiday time off to all employees according to the Government Law.

3-03 Sick Leave Benefits:

Women in Digital provide paid sick leave benefits to all eligible employees for periods of temporary absence due to illnesses or injuries. Eligible employee classification(s):

Regular full-time employees:

Eligible employees will accrue sick leave benefits at the rate of 12 days per year.

An eligible employee may use sick leave benefits for an absence due to his or her own illness or injury, or that of a child, parent, or spouse of the employee.

Employees who are unable to report to work due to illness or injury should notify their direct supervisor before the scheduled start of their workday if possible. The direct supervisor must also be contacted on each additional day of absence. If an employee is absent for three or more consecutive days due to illness or injury, the company may require a physician's statement verifying the illness or injury and its beginning and expected ending dates. Such verification may be requested for other sick leave absences as well and may be required as a condition to receiving sick leave benefits. Unused sick leave benefits will not be paid to employees while they are employed or upon termination of employment.

3-04 Bereavement Leave:

Employees who wish to take time off due to the death of an immediate family member should notify their supervisor immediately.

Up to three days of paid bereavement leave will be provided to eligible employees. Women in Digital defines “immediate family” as the employee’s spouse, parent, child, or sibling.

4-01 Paydays:

All employees are paid monthly. Each paycheck will include earnings for all work performed through the end of the previous payroll period.

4-02 Employment Termination:

Termination of employment is an inevitable part of personnel activity within any organization and many of the reasons for termination are routine. Below are examples of some of the most common circumstances under which employment is terminated:

- ✓ resignation—voluntary employment termination initiated by an employee.
- ✓ discharge—involuntary employment termination initiated by the organization.
- ✓ layoff—involuntary employment termination initiated by the organization because of an organizational change.
- ✓ retirement—voluntary employment termination initiated by the employee meeting age, length of service, and any other criteria for retirement from the organization.

Divine IT will generally schedule exit interviews at the time of employment termination. The exit interview will afford an opportunity to discuss such issues as employee benefits, conversion privileges, repayment of outstanding debts to the Company, or return of the Company-owned property. Suggestions, complaints, and questions can also be voiced.

Nothing in this policy is intended to change the company’s at-will employment policy. Since employment with the Company is based on mutual consent, both the employee and the Company have the right to terminate employment at will, with or without cause, at any time. Employees will receive their final pay in accordance with applicable state law.

Employee benefits will be affected by employment termination in the following manner. All accrued, vested benefits that are due and payable at termination will be paid.

4-03 Administrative Pay Corrections:

Women in digital takes all reasonable steps to ensure that employees receive the correct amount of pay in each paycheck and that employees are paid promptly on the scheduled payday.

In the unlikely event that there is an error in the amount of pay, the employee should promptly bring the discrepancy to the attention of the Human Resources Department so that corrections can be made as quickly as possible.

4-10 Pay Deductions and Set offs:

If any employee is absent without notifying the HR department or late to attend three successive days, women in digital will deduct the payment of that specific day.

5-01 Safety:

To assist in providing a safe and healthful work environment for employees, customers, and visitors, Women in Digital has established a workplace safety program. This program is a top priority for the Company. The Human Resources Department has responsibility for implementing, administering, monitoring, and evaluating the safety program. Its success depends on the alertness and personal commitment of all.

The Company provides information to employees about workplace safety and health issues through regular internal communication channels such as supervisor-employee meetings, bulletin board postings, e-mail, memos, or other written communications.

Some of the best safety improvement ideas come from employees. Those with ideas, concerns, or suggestions for improved safety in the workplace are encouraged to raise them with their supervisor, or with another supervisor or manager, or bring them to the attention of the Human Resources Department. Reports and concerns about workplace safety issues may be made anonymously if the employee wishes. All reports can be made without fear of reprisal.

Each employee is expected to obey safety rules and to exercise caution in all work activities. Employees must immediately report any unsafe condition to the appropriate supervisor. Employees who violate safety standards, who cause hazardous or dangerous situations, or who fail to report or, where appropriate, remedy such situations may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

In the case of accidents that result in injury, regardless of how insignificant the injury may appear, employees should immediately notify the Human Resources Department or the appropriate supervisor. Such reports are necessary to comply with laws and initiate insurance and workers' compensation benefits procedures.

5-02 Work Schedules:

Work schedules for employees vary throughout our organization. 10:00 a.m.-6:30 p.m. is a standard workday. Although the office timing is from 10 A.M. to 6.30 P.M. sometimes you may be required to stay longer as and when required. Supervisors will advise employees of their individual work schedules. Staffing needs and operational demands may necessitate variations in starting and ending times, as well as variations in the total hours that may be scheduled each day and week.

5-03 Use of Phone and Mail Systems:

Personal use of the telephone for long-distance and toll calls is not permitted. Employees should practice discretion when making local personal calls and may be required to reimburse Women in Digital for any charges resulting from their personal use of the telephone. To ensure effective telephone communications, employees should always use the approved greeting (“Good Morning, Women in Digital” or “Good Afternoon, Women in Digital,” as applicable) and speak in a courteous and professional manner. Please confirm information received from the caller and hang up only after the caller has done so.

The mail system is reserved for business purposes only. Employees should refrain from sending or receiving personal mail at the workplace. The e-mail system is the property of Women in Digital Limited. Occasional use of the e-mail system for personal messages is permitted, within reasonable limits. Women in Digital Limited will not guarantee the privacy of the e-mail system except to the extent required by law.

5-04 Smoking:

Smoking is prohibited throughout the workplace, as required by law. This policy applies equally to all employees, customers, and visitors.

5-05 Rest and Meal Periods:

All employees are provided with one-hour meal period each workday. Supervisors will schedule meal periods to accommodate operating requirements. Employees will be relieved of all active responsibilities and restrictions during meal periods and will not be compensated for that time.

5-06 Emergency Closings:

At times, emergencies such as severe weather, fires, power failures, or earthquakes can disrupt company operations. In extreme cases, these circumstances may require the closing of a work facility.

In cases where an emergency closing is not authorized, employees who fail to report for work will not be paid for the time off. Employees may request available paid leave time such as unused vacation benefits.

5-07 Business Travel Expenses:

Women in Digital will reimburse employees for reasonable business travel expenses incurred while on assignments away from the normal work location. All business travel must be approved in advance by the HR. When approved, the actual costs of travel, meals, lodging, and other expenses directly related to accomplishing business travel objectives will be reimbursed by Women in Digital. Employees are expected to limit expenses to reasonable amounts.

5-08 Visitors in the Workplace:

To provide for the safety and security of employees and the facilities at Women in Digital, only authorized visitors are allowed in the workplace. Restricting unauthorized visitors helps maintain safety standards, protects against theft, ensures security of equipment, protects confidential information, safeguards employee welfare, and avoids potential distractions and disturbances. All visitors should enter Women in Digital at the main entrance. Authorized visitors will receive directions or be escorted to their destination. Employees are responsible for the conduct and safety of their visitors. If an unauthorized individual is observed on the Company's premises, employees should immediately notify their supervisor or, if necessary, direct the individual to the main entrance.

5-09 Computer and E-mail Usage:

Computers, computer files, the e-mail system, and software furnished to employees are Women in Digital's property intended for business use. Employees should not use a password, access a file, or retrieve any stored communication without authorization.

Women in Digital strives to maintain a workplace free of harassment and is sensitive to the diversity of its employees. Therefore, Women in Digital prohibits the use of computers and the e-mail system in ways that are disruptive, offensive to others, or harmful to morale.

For example, the display or transmission of sexually explicit images, messages, and cartoons is not allowed. Other such misuse includes, but is not limited to, ethnic slurs, racial comments, off-color jokes, or anything that may be construed as harassment or showing disrespect for others. Employees should notify their immediate supervisor, the Human Resources Department, or any member of management upon learning of violations of this policy. Employees who violate this policy will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

5-10 Internet Usage:

Internet access to global electronic information resources on the World Wide Web is provided by the Company to assist employees in obtaining work-related data and technology. The following guidelines have been established to help ensure responsible and productive Internet usage. While Internet usage is intended for job-related activities, incidental and occasional brief personal use of e-mail and the Internet is permitted within reasonable limits.

All Internet data that is composed, transmitted, or received via our computer communications systems is considered to be part of the official records of Women in Digital and, as such, is subject to disclosure to law enforcement or other third parties. Employees should expect only the level of privacy that is warranted by existing law and no more. Consequently, employees should always ensure that the business information contained in Internet e-mail messages and other transmissions is accurate, appropriate, ethical, and lawful. Any questions regarding the legal effect of a message or transmission should be brought to our General Counsel.

Data that is composed, transmitted, accessed, or received via the Internet must not contain content that could be considered discriminatory, offensive, obscene, threatening, harassing, intimidating, or disruptive to any employee or other person. Examples of unacceptable content may include, but are not limited to, sexual comments or images, racial slurs, gender-specific comments, or any other comments or images that could reasonably offend someone on the basis of race, age, sex, religious or political beliefs, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, or any other characteristic protected by law.

The unauthorized use, installation, copying, or distribution of copyrighted, trademarked, or patented material on the Internet is expressly prohibited. As a general rule, if an employee did not create material, does not own the rights to it, or has not gotten authorization for its use, it should not be put on the Internet. Employees are also responsible for ensuring that the person sending any material over the Internet has the appropriate distribution rights. Any questions regarding the use of such information should be brought to our General Counsel.

Internet users should take the necessary anti-virus precautions before downloading or copying any file from the Internet. All downloaded files are to be checked for viruses; all compressed files are to be checked before and after decompression.

Abuse of the Internet access provided by the Company in violation of the law or the Company policies will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. Employees may also be held personally liable for any violations of this policy. The following behaviors are examples of previously stated or additional actions and activities that are prohibited and can result in disciplinary action:

- ✓ Sending or posting discriminatory, harassing, or threatening messages or images
- ✓ Using the organization's time and resources for personal gain
- ✓ Stealing, using, or disclosing someone else's code or password without authorization
- ✓ Copying, pirating, or downloading software and electronic files without permission
- ✓ Sending or posting confidential material, trade secrets, or proprietary information outside of the organization
- ✓ Violating copyright law
- ✓ Failing to observe licensing agreements
- ✓ Engaging in unauthorized transactions that may incur a cost to the organization or initiate unwanted Internet services and transmissions
- ✓ Sending or posting messages or material that could damage the organization's image or reputation
- ✓ Participating in the viewing or exchange of pornography or obscene materials
- ✓ Sending or posting messages that defame or slander other individuals
- ✓ Attempting to break into the computer system of another organization or person
- ✓ Refusing to cooperate with a security investigation
- ✓ Sending or posting chain letters, solicitations, or advertisements not related to business purposes or activities
- ✓ Using the Internet for political causes or activities, religious activities, or any sort of gambling
- ✓ Jeopardizing the security of the organization's electronic communications systems
- ✓ Sending or posting messages that disparage another organization's products or services
- ✓ Passing off personal views as representing those of the organization
- ✓ Sending anonymous e-mail messages
- ✓ Engaging in any other illegal activities

5.11 Printer Usages Policy:

Women in Digital has several "public" printers available for use for official purpose. If you plan to (continue to) use the official printers, you should become aware of the policy governing their use. The

Call: +880 1716789541

mail: info@widbd.com

web: www.womenindigital.net, www.widbd.com

facebook.com/ WomeninDigital.net printers are a shared resource. It is essential to their health that they only be used as necessary. The printers are to be used for the same purposes as your work responsibility. You should not be using the printers for personal use. You should only print manual pages on the printers as absolutely necessary.

You should not print documents just to "see what they are." There are on-line reviewers available essentially all documentation formats.

You should not use the printers as duplicating machines. If you want multiple copies of a document, print one copy and then use a photocopy machine to make more copies.

Filing output is everyone's responsibility. Where output trays are available, all output should be filed by the FIRST letter of the login on the banner page. Where output bins are not available, stack output neatly on the table. Be careful to separate the output of different users. Output filed in the wrong bin is a frequent cause of "lost output".

If you are printing output on the printer that is more than 25 pages, you should be there to collect it when it comes out. The output trays on the printers are not designed to handle large numbers of pages, and it is necessary to remove some of the output before it is finished. When someone else besides the owner does this, the portions frequently end up scattered around the tables without header pages.

When you direct output to the printer, make sure you pick it up. Even if you no longer want it, you should collect the output to avoid unnecessary clutter in the output bins or on the output table. You should also recycle paper that you do not want. Printer paper should go in the small grey recycling bins.

5-12 Workplace Violence Prevention:

Women in Digital is committed to preventing workplace violence and to maintaining a safe work environment. Given the increasing violence in society in general, Women in Digital has adopted the following guidelines to deal with intimidation, harassment, or other threats of (or actual) violence that may occur during business hours or on its premises.

All employees, including supervisors and temporary employees, should be treated with courtesy and respect at all times. All employees are requested to maintain a mutual understanding between his/her team mates / colleague to achieve organizational goal. Employees are expected to refrain from such fighting, "horseplay," or other conduct that may be dangerous to others and harmful to company also. Firearms, weapons, and other dangerous or hazardous devices or substances are prohibited from the premises of Women in Digital without proper authorization.

Conduct that threatens, intimidates, or coerces another employee, a customer, or a member of the public at any time, including off-duty periods, will not be tolerated. This prohibition includes all acts of harassment, including harassment that is based on an individual's sex, race, age, or any characteristic protected by federal, state, or local law.

All threats of (or actual) violence, both direct and indirect, should be reported as soon as possible to your immediate supervisor or any other member of management. This includes threats by employees, as well as threats by customers, vendors, solicitors, or other members of the public. When reporting a threat of violence, you should be as specific and detailed as possible.

All suspicious individuals or activities should also be reported as soon as possible to a supervisor. Do not place yourself in peril. If you see or hear a commotion or disturbance near your workstation, do not try to intercede or see what is happening. Women in Digital will promptly and thoroughly investigate all reports of threats of (or actual) violence and of suspicious individuals or activities. The identity of the individual making a report will be protected as much as is practical.

Anyone determined to be responsible for threats of (or actual) violence or other conduct that is in violation of these guidelines will be subject to prompt disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Women in Digital encourages employees to bring their disputes or differences with other employees to the attention of their supervisors or the Human Resources Department before the situation escalates into potential violence. Women in Digital is eager to assist in the resolution of employee disputes and will not discipline employees for raising such concerns.

6-01 Medical Leave:

Women in Digital provides medical leaves of absence without pay to eligible employees who are temporarily unable to work due to a serious health condition or disability. For purposes of this policy, serious health conditions or disabilities include inpatient care in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical care facility and continuing treatment by a health care provider.

Employees in the following employment classifications are eligible to request medical leave as described in this policy:

Regular full-time employees

Eligible employees should make requests for medical leave to their supervisors at least 30 days in advance of foreseeable events and as soon as possible for unforeseeable events.

A health care provider's statement must be submitted verifying the need for medical leave and its beginning and expected ending dates. Any changes in this information should be promptly reported to Women in Digital. Employees returning from medical leave must submit a health care provider's verification of their fitness to return to work.

Eligible employees are normally granted leave for the period of the disability, up to a maximum of 3 weeks within any 12-month period. Any combination of medical leave and family leave may not exceed this maximum limit. If the initial period of approved absence proves insufficient, consideration will be given to a request for an extension.

Employees who sustain work-related injuries are eligible for a medical leave of absence for the period of the disability, in accordance with all applicable laws covering occupational disabilities.

Benefit accruals, such as vacation, sick leave, and holiday benefits, will continue during the approved medical leave period.

So that an employee's return to work can be properly scheduled, an employee on medical leave is requested to provide Women in Digital with at least two weeks' advance notice of the date the employee intends to return to work. When a medical leave ends, the employee will be reinstated to the same position, if it is available, or to an equivalent position for which the employee is qualified.

If an employee fails to return to work on the agreed-upon return date, Women in Digital will assume that the employee has resigned.

6-02 Family Leave:

Women in Digital provides family leaves of absence without pay to eligible employees who wish to take time off from work duties to fulfill family obligations relating directly to childbirth, adoption, or placement of a foster child or to care for a child, spouse, or parent with a serious health condition. A “serious health condition” means an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves inpatient care in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical care facility or continuing treatment by a health care provider.

Employees in the following employment classifications are eligible to request family leave as described in this policy:

Regular full-time employees:

Eligible employees should make requests for family leave to their supervisors at least 30 days in advance of foreseeable events and as soon as possible for unforeseeable events. Employees requesting family leave related to the serious health condition of a child, spouse, or parent may be required to submit a health care provider’s statement verifying the need for family leave to provide care, its beginning and expected ending dates, and the estimated time required.

Eligible employees may request up to a maximum of 12 weeks of family leave within any 12-month period. Any combination of family leave and medical leave may not exceed this maximum. Married employee couples may be restricted to a combined total of 12 weeks leave within any 12-month period for childbirth, adoption, or placement of a foster child or to care for a parent with a serious health condition.

Subject to the terms, conditions, and limitations of the applicable plans, Women in Digital will continue to provide health insurance benefits for the full period of the approved family leave. Benefit accruals, such as vacation, sick leave, and holiday benefits, will continue during the approved family leave period.

So that an employee’s return to work can be properly scheduled, an employee on family leave is requested to provide Women in Digital with at least two weeks’ advance notice of the date the employee intends to return to work. When a family leaves ends, the employee will be reinstated to the same position, if it is available, or to an equivalent position for which the employee is qualified. If an employee fails to return to work on the agreed-upon return date, Women in Digital will assume that the employee has resigned.

6-07 Pregnancy Disability Leave:

Women in Digital provides pregnancy disability leaves of absence with pay for 3(Three) months to eligible employees who are temporarily unable to work due to a disability related to pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions. Any employee is eligible to request pregnancy disability leave as described in this policy. Employees should make requests for pregnancy disability leave to their supervisors at least 30 days in advance of foreseeable events and as soon as possible for unforeseeable events. A health care provider’s statement must be submitted verifying the need for pregnancy disability leave and its beginning and expected ending dates. Any changes in this information should be promptly reported to Women in Digital. Employees returning from pregnancy disability leave must submit a health care provider’s verification of their fitness to return to work.

Employees are normally granted unpaid leave for the period of the disability, up to a maximum of another Three months. Employees may substitute any accrued paid leave time for unpaid leave as part of the pregnancy disability leave period. So that an employee’s return to work can be properly scheduled, an employee on pregnancy disability leave is requested to provide Women in Digital with at least two weeks’ advance notice of the date she intends to return to work. When a pregnancy disability leave ends, the employee will be reinstated to the same position, unless either the employee would not otherwise have been employed for legitimate business reasons or each means of preserving the job would substantially undermine the ability to operate Women in Digital safely and efficiently. If the same position is not available, the employee will be offered a comparable position in terms of such issues as pay, location, job content, and promotional opportunities.

If an employee fails to report to work promptly at the end of the pregnancy disability leave, Women in Digital will assume that the employee has resigned.

7-01 Employee Conduct and Work Rules:

To ensure orderly operations and provide the best possible work environment, Women in Digital expects employees to follow rules of conduct that will protect the interests and safety of all employees and the organization.

It is not possible to list all the forms of behavior that are considered unacceptable in the workplace. The following are examples of infractions of rules of conduct that may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment:

- ✓ Theft or inappropriate removal or possession of property
- ✓ Falsification of timekeeping records
- ✓ Working under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs
- ✓ Possession, distribution, sale, transfer, or use of alcohol or illegal drugs in the workplace, while on duty or while operating employer-owned vehicles or equipment
- ✓ Fighting or threatening violence in the workplace
- ✓ Violating the “Harassment Free Workplace Policy”
- ✓ Boisterous or disruptive activity in the workplace
- ✓ Negligence or improper conduct leading to damage of employer-owned or customer-owned property
- ✓ During the employment, employees must have to work anywhere in Bangladesh or any other country as and when required in any situation
- ✓ Insubordination or other disrespectful conduct
- ✓ Violation of safety or health rules
- ✓ Smoking in the workplace
- ✓ Sexual or other unlawful or unwelcome harassment
- ✓ Possession of dangerous or unauthorized materials, such as explosives or firearms, in the workplace
- ✓ Excessive absenteeism or any absence without notice
- ✓ Unauthorized disclosure of business “secrets” or confidential information
- ✓ Violation of personnel policies
- ✓ Unsatisfactory performance or conduct

Nothing in this policy is intended to change the company’s at-will employment policy. Employment with Women in Digital is at the mutual consent of the Company and the employee, and either party may terminate that relationship at any time, with or without cause, and with or without advance notice.

7-02 Drug and Alcohol Use:

It is Women in Digital's desire to provide a drug-free, healthful, and safe workplace. To promote this goal, employees are required to report to work in appropriate mental and physical condition to perform their jobs in a satisfactory manner.

While on Women in Digital premises and while conducting business-related activities off the Company premises, no employee may use, possess, distribute, sell, or be under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs. The legal use of prescribed drugs is permitted on the job only if it does not impair an employee's ability to perform the essential functions of the job effectively and in a safe manner that does not endanger other individuals in the workplace.

Violations of this policy may lead to disciplinary action, up to and including immediate termination of employment, and/or required participation in a substance abuse rehabilitation or treatment program. Such violations may also have legal consequences.

Employees with questions or concerns about substance dependency or abuse are encouraged to discuss these matters with their supervisor or the Human Resources Department to receive assistance or referrals to appropriate resources in the community.

Employees with questions on this policy or issues related to drug or alcohol use in the workplace should raise their concerns with their supervisor or the Human Resources Department without fear of reprisal.

7-03 Sexual and Other Unlawful Harassment:

Women in Digital is committed to providing a work environment that is free from all forms of discrimination and conduct that can be considered harassing, coercive, or disruptive, including sexual harassment. Actions, words, jokes, or comments based on an individual's sex, race, color, national origin, age, religion, disability, sexual orientation, or any other legally protected characteristic will not be tolerated.

Sexual harassment is defined as unwanted sexual advances, or visual, verbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature. This definition includes many forms of offensive behavior and includes gender-based harassment of a person of the same sex as the harasser. The following is a partial list of sexual harassment examples:

- ✓ Unwanted sexual advances
- ✓ Offering employment benefits in exchange for sexual favors
- ✓ Making or threatening reprisals after a negative response to sexual advances
- ✓ Visual conduct that includes leering, making sexual gestures, or displaying of sexually suggestive objects or pictures, cartoons, or posters
- ✓ Verbal conduct that includes making or using derogatory comments, epithets, slurs, or jokes
- ✓ Verbal sexual advances or propositions
- ✓ Verbal abuse of a sexual nature, graphic verbal commentaries about an individual's body, sexually degrading words used to describe an individual, or suggestive or obscene letters, notes, or invitations
- ✓ Physical conduct that includes touching, assaulting, or impeding or blocking movements

Unwelcome sexual advances (either verbal or physical), requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when: (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment; (2) submission to or rejection of the conduct is used as a basis for making employment decisions; or (3) the conduct has the purpose or effect of interfering with work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

If you experience or witness sexual or other unlawful harassment in the workplace, report it immediately to your supervisor. If the supervisor is unavailable or you believe it would be inappropriate to contact that person, you should immediately contact the Human Resources Department or any other member of management. You can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal or retaliation.

All allegations of sexual harassment will be quickly and discreetly investigated. To the extent possible, your confidentiality and that of any witnesses and the alleged harasser will be protected against unnecessary disclosure. When the investigation is completed, you will be informed of the outcome of the investigation.

Any supervisor or manager who becomes aware of possible sexual or other unlawful harassment must immediately advise the Human Resources Department or the President of the company so it can be investigated in a timely and confidential manner. Anyone engaging in sexual or other unlawful behavior will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

7-04 Attendance and Punctuality:

To maintain a safe and productive work environment, Women in Digital expects employees to be reliable and to be punctual in reporting for scheduled work. Absenteeism and tardiness place a burden on other employees and on the Company. In the rare instances when employees cannot avoid being late to work or are unable to work as scheduled, they should notify their supervisor or the Human Resources Department as soon as possible in advance of the anticipated tardiness or absence.

Poor attendance and excessive tardiness are disruptive. Either may lead to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

7-05 Personal Appearance:

Dress, grooming, and personal cleanliness standards contribute to the morale of all employees and affect the business image that the Company presents to the community.

During business hours or when representing the Company, you are expected to present a clean, neat, and tasteful appearance. You should dress and groom yourself according to the requirements of your position and accepted social standards.

Your supervisor or department head is responsible for establishing a reasonable dress code appropriate to the job you perform. If your supervisor feels that your personal appearance is inappropriate, you may be asked to leave the workplace until you are properly dressed or groomed. Under such circumstances, you will not be compensated for the time away from work. Consult your supervisor if you have questions as to what constitutes appropriate appearance. Where necessary, reasonable accommodation may be made to a person with a disability.

7-06 Return of Property:

Employees are responsible for all Women in Digital property, materials, or written information issued to them or in their possession or control. Employees must return all Women in Digital property immediately upon request or upon termination of employment. Where permitted by applicable laws, the Company may withhold from the employee's check or final paycheck the cost of any items that are not returned when required. Women in Digital may also take all action deemed appropriate to recover or protect its property.

7-07 Resignation:

Resignation is a voluntary act initiated by the employee to terminate employment with the Company.

Prior to an employee's departure, an exit interview will be scheduled to discuss the reasons for resignation and the effect of the resignation on benefits.

7-08 Security Inspections:

Women in Digital wishes to maintain a work environment that is free of illegal drugs, alcohol, firearms, explosives, or other improper materials. To this end, the Company prohibits the possession, transfer, sale, or use of such materials on its premises. Women in Digital requires the cooperation of all employees in administering this policy.

Desks, lockers, and other storage devices may be provided for the convenience of employees but remain the sole property of the Company. Accordingly, they, as well as any articles found within them, can be inspected by any agent or representative of the Company at any time, either with or without prior notice.

7-09 Solicitation:

In an effort to ensure a productive and harmonious work environment, persons not employed by the Company may not solicit or distribute literature in the workplace at any time for any purpose.

The Company recognizes that employees may have interests in events and organizations outside the workplace. However, employees may not solicit or distribute literature concerning these activities during working time. (Working time does not include lunch periods, work breaks, or any other periods in which employees are not on duty.)

Examples of impermissible forms of solicitation include:

- ✓ The collection of money, goods, or gifts for community groups
- ✓ The collection of money, goods, or gifts for religious groups
- ✓ The collection of money, goods, or gifts for political groups
- ✓ The collection of money, goods, or gifts for charitable groups
- ✓ The sale of goods, services, or subscriptions outside the scope of official organization business
- ✓ The circulation of petitions
- ✓ The distribution of literature in working areas at any time
- ✓ The solicitation of memberships, fees, or dues

In addition, the posting of written solicitations on company bulletin boards and solicitations by e-mail are restricted. Company bulletin boards display important information; employees should consult them frequently for:

- ✓ Affirmative Action statement
- ✓ Employee announcements
- ✓ Workers' compensation insurance information
- ✓ State disability insurance/unemployment insurance information

If employees have a message of interest to the workplace, they may submit it to the Human Resources Director for approval. All approved messages will be posted by the Human Resources Director.

7-10 Progressive Discipline:

The purpose of this policy is to state Women in Digital's position on administering equitable and consistent discipline for unsatisfactory conduct in the workplace. The best disciplinary measure is the one that does not have to be enforced and comes from good leadership and fair supervision at all employment levels.

Women in Digital's own best interest lies in ensuring fair treatment of all employees and in making certain that disciplinary actions are prompt, uniform, and impartial. The major purpose of any disciplinary action is to correct the problem, prevent recurrence, and prepare the employee for satisfactory service in the future.

Although employment with Women in Digital is based on mutual consent and both the employee and Women in Digital have the right to terminate employment at will, with or without cause or advance notice, Women in Digital may use progressive discipline at its discretion.

Disciplinary action may call for any of four steps—verbal warning, written warning, suspension with or without pay, or termination of employment—depending on the severity of the problem and the number of occurrences.

Progressive discipline means that, with respect to many disciplinary problems, these four steps will normally be followed. However, there may be circumstances when one or more steps are bypassed.

Women in Digital recognizes that there are certain types of employee problems that are serious enough to justify either a suspension or, in extreme situations, termination of employment, without going through the usual progressive discipline steps.

While it is impossible to list every type of behavior that may be deemed a serious offense, the Employee Conduct and Work Rules policy includes examples of problems that may result in immediate suspension or termination of employment. However, the problems listed are not all necessarily serious offenses, but may be examples of unsatisfactory conduct that will trigger progressive discipline.

By using progressive discipline, we hope that most employee problems can be corrected at an early stage, benefiting both the employee and the Company.

7-11 Company General Policy:

Employees are expected to conduct work-related matters in accordance with the company law and the highest ethical standards. Corrective action may result from not following company standards. If the breach is considered serious, immediate discharge will occur. Women in Digital Limited reserves the right to determine the severity and appropriateness of any corrective action based on the circumstances of any situation and also reserves the right to audit each situation on a case by case manner.

Women in Digital has the sole discretion and right to determine if and when progressive discipline is warranted. Company always retains the right to terminate employment without warning, cause or notice. Employees should have to abide by the rules, regulations, policy and practices of the company, which are subject to change from time to time.

Any employment and performance information is confidential and shall be released only to those parties who can demonstrate a bona fide need for such information.

The intent of this process is to offer a system of improving performance or correcting policy violations. This process will consider the following, and each case will be reviewed individually:

- The circumstance and/or explanations given by the employee
- The past work record and position of the employee
- The policy violated
- The severity of the violation
- The frequency of the infraction
- The action taken with other employees for similar violations under similar circumstances

7-12 Problem Resolution:

Women in Digital is committed to providing the best possible working conditions for its employees. Part of this commitment is encouraging an open and frank atmosphere in which any problem, complaint, suggestion, or question receives a timely response from Women in Digital supervisors and management.

Women in Digital strives to ensure fair and honest treatment of all employees. Supervisors, managers, and employees are expected to treat each other with respect. Employees are encouraged to offer positive and constructive criticism.

If employees disagree with established rules of conduct, policies, or practices, they can express their concern through the problem resolution procedure. No employee will be penalized, formally or informally, for voicing a complaint with the Company in a reasonable, business-like manner, or for using the problem resolution procedure.

If a situation occurs when employees believe that a condition of employment or a decision affecting them is unjust or inequitable, they are encouraged to make use of the following steps. The employee may discontinue the procedure at any step.

1. The employee presents the problem to his or her immediate supervisor after the incident occurs. If the supervisor is unavailable or the employee believes it would be inappropriate to contact that person, the employee may present the problem to the Human Resources Department.

2. The supervisor responds to the problem during discussion or after consulting with appropriate management, when necessary. The supervisor documents this discussion.
3. The employee presents the problem to the Human Resources Department if the problem is unresolved.
4. The Human Resources Department counsels and advises the employee, assists in putting the problem in writing, and visits with the employee's manager(s).

Not every problem can be resolved to everyone's total satisfaction, but only through understanding and discussing mutual problems can employees and management develop confidence in each other. This confidence is important to the operation of an efficient and harmonious work environment.

8-01 Child Protection:

As we are women based company so we always careful our employee betterment. We have a childcare in our office but still we don't need to use it but sometimes some kids are come in our office they have played there. In future our employee kids will use this and we will update it time to time.

9-01 Suggestions:

As employees of Women in Digital, you have the opportunity to contribute to our future success and growth by submitting suggestions for practical work-improvement or cost-savings ideas.

All regular employees are eligible to participate in the suggestion program.

A suggestion is an idea that will benefit the Company by solving a problem, reducing costs, improving operations or procedures, enhancing customer service, eliminating waste or spoilage, or making the Company a better or safer place to work. All suggestions should contain a description of the problem or condition to be improved, a detailed explanation of the solution or improvement, and the reasons why it should be implemented. Statements of problems without accompanying solutions or recommendations concerning co-workers and management are not appropriate suggestions. If you have questions or need advice about your idea, contact your supervisor for help.

Submit suggestions to the Human Resources Department and, after review, they will be forwarded to the Suggestion Committee. As soon as possible, you will be notified of the adoption or rejection of your suggestion. Special recognition and, optionally, a cash award will be given to employees who submit a suggestion that is implemented.

Women In Digital
Bangladesh